

U.S. Delegation

July 19, 1990

- I. POLITICAL DECLARATION ON DEMOCRACY AND THE ROLE OF CSCE
IN A REUNITING EUROPE
- A. Review and Affirmation of Changes in Europe
 - (1) Acknowledgement of Democratic Reforms and greater respect for human rights and individual freedoms
 - (2) Acknowledgement of desire to strengthen cooperative elements of European security, and the proper role of CSCE in enhancing openness reducing the risk of conflict and building mutual confidence
 - (3) Acknowledgement of results of Two-Plus-Four, German Unification and place of Germany in an undivided Europe
- B. Review and affirmation of the achievements of CSCE since 1975 and the continued centrality of its role in the new European architecture
 - (1) Reaffirmation of Helsinki principles and Madrid and Vienna commitments
 - (2) Enunciation of commitments to free elections, political pluralism, Rule of Law
 - (3) Affirmation of market-based economics as basis of economic cooperation between and reinforcement of political pluralism
 - (4) Enunciation of need for continued vigilance for respect of human rights and fundamental freedoms
 - (5) Reiteration of the central importance to all CSCE states of cooperative efforts to protect the environment

II. CSCE ACTIVITIES SINCE VIENNA

Brief affirmation of the positive results of and formal adoption of commitments enunciated at intersessionals since the Vienna Review Conference:

- (1) Basket I
 - (A) Acknowledgement of results achieved in CFE (signing to take place on Summit margins)
 - (B) Agreement to new package of CSBMs
- (2) Basket II
 - (A) Sofia Conference on the protection of the environment
 - (B) Bonn Conference on Economic Cooperation in Europe
 - (C) Palma Meeting on the Mediterranean
- (3) Basket III
 - (A) London information forum
 - (B) Paris/Copenhagen meetings of the Conference on the Human Dimension

III. FUTURE DIRECTIONS FOR CSCE

- A. London Declaration Proposals
- B. Mandates for security talks
 - (1) CSBMs to continue under existing Mandate
 - (2) CFE to continue under existing Mandate
- C. Agreement to study other ideas that have not been agreed in advance of the Helsinki Review Conference
- D. Concluding Statement underlining commitment of participating states to CSCE's future development as a transatlantic community of democratic values and shared interests